

RAILROAD TIME-TABLES.

NEW YORK AND GREENWOOD LAKE.
[Corrected to date.]
To New York.

Leave Chestnut Hill—6.32 A. M., 7.34, 7.52, 7.57, 8.09,
10.08 A. M., 12.43, 4.50, 5.35, 6.19, 11.19 P. M.
Sunday, 7.27, 8.18, 9.08 A. M., 2.25, 3.55, 8.51
P. M.

Leave Bloomfield (Belleview's Ave. station) 6.24,
6.27, 7.05, 7.30, 7.52, 8.12, 8.45, 10.11 A. M., 12.45,
3.19, 4.03, 5.36, 6.53, 9.22, 11.22 P. M.; Sunday,
7.30, 8.15, 9.12 A. M., 2.28, 6.45, 8.59, 8.54
P. M.

Leave Orchard St.—6.35, 6.50, 7.07, 7.54, 10.14
A. M., 12.47, 4.54, 11.24 P. M.; Sundays, 7.32, 8.17,
9.14 A. M., 2.30, 6.56 P. M.

Trains marked * stop on signal.

From New York.

Leave foot of Chambers St.—6.10, 8.00, 9.00,
11.09 A. M., 12.50, 1.30, 3.22 1-2, 4.07, 5.05, 6.37 1-2,
7.02, 8.00, 9.00, 10.00, 12.00 P. M.; Sunday, 7.32, 8.30,
9.25 P. M.

From New York.

Leave foot of Chambers St.—6.10, 8.00, 9.00,
10.00, 12.00 P. M.; Sunday, 7.32, 8.30 A. M., 1.30, 3.30,
6.15, 8.15, 10.00 P. M.

Saturdays only.

* Saturdays only. ♦ Does not run Saturdays.

WATCHUNG RAILROAD.

To New York.

Leave Prospect Street—6.10, 7.04, 7.37, 7.52, 8.04,
8.47, 10.09 A. M., 12.42, 3.18, 4.48, 6.45, 9.17, 11.20
P. M.; Sundays—7.54, 9.31 A. M., 1.27, 5.58, 7.56,
9.25 P. M.

From New York.

Leave foot of Chambers St.—6.10, 8.00, 9.00,
10.00, 12.00 P. M.; Sunday, 7.32, 8.30 A. M., 1.30, 3.30,
6.15, 8.15, 10.00 P. M.

Saturdays only.

LOCAL JOTTINGS.

Essex County Courts will open on Tuesday.

The tax in the Silver Lake district this year is $1.79.

The Township Committee will meet next Friday afternoon.

The public schools will reopen next Tuesday, September 1.

Two per cent. discount is allowed on all taxes paid before October 1.

Excelsior Hose Company, No. 3, held their regular monthly meeting last evening.

Robert McNeil of Fairview has just completed a singing engagement with Gilmore at Manhattan Beach.

Tax bills have been distributed during the week. The increased taxation has occasioned considerable comment.

Clerk Reford extinguished a chimney fire at the residence of F. W. Capen on Franklin Street Thursday morning.

E. A. Raynor is spending his vacation in New England. Rumor has it that he will call at Gray Gables, Buzzard's Bay.

The Bloomfield Cyclers will have a club run to Sloatsburg, N. Y., on Labor Day, leaving the club-house at eight A. M.

September 16th will be Anniversary Day with the Young Men's Republican Club. Officers will be elected and a banquet held.

Mortality among horses has been unusually severe the past week. Inspector Corby had to send for the horse three times.

Entrance examination at the Theological Seminary will take place on Wednesday, September 14. The Seminary will open the following day.

The Rev. George B. Richards of Albany will preach in St. Paul's Episcopal Church at Watsessing to-morrow morning and evening.

The Society of Christian Endeavor of Newark will have an excursion up the Morris Canal and a picnic in McNair's Woods next Monday, Labor Day.

Miss E. A. Folson, a cousin of Mrs. Grover Cleveland, and who is engaged in missionary work in India, will return to her field of labor early in October.

The New Jersey Knights of Pythias, now at Kansas City encampment, have a monster mosquito on a pole as an emblem, and "Escaped from New Jersey," as the legend.

The Montclair bicycle ordinance proposes to limit the speed at which wheels can be ridden in that town to six miles per hour. The wheelmen there are protesting against the limitation.

Arthur Leuthausser of Bloomfield Avenue was the third member of the Standard Musical Box Club to win a music box. Robert Felling of Broad Street is the manager of the club.

Hong Sing and Wah Lung, Chinese residents of this town, will have to go to Newark and be photographed and secure a certificate of residence at the Internal Revenue office in the Newark Post-office.

At the tournament of the Glen Ridge Tennis Club held last Saturday Miss Mildred Daniel defeated Miss Grace Smith in the ladies' singles, thereby winning the gold medal and the championship of the club.

A number of large dead fish have been taken out of the seventeen-mile level of the Morris Canal, at the head of the Plane. It is said the fish die from the poison emptied in the canal from the bone factory at Paterson.

The remains of Mrs. Susan M. Baldwin, who died in Easton, Pa., on Wednesday, will be brought to Bloomfield to-day for interment. Mrs. Baldwin was in her eighty-ninth year. She was the widow of Caleb D. Baldwin.

The horse of Amos Stackhouse of Newark, captain of the Morris Canal boat, became exhausted and fell into the ditch along the canal bank near Liberty Street on Saturday and was unable to get up. Health Inspector Corby was called and relieved the animal of all pain.

William H. Flood, an employee of the New York and Greenwood Lake Railroad, has been appointed ticket agent at the Orchard Street Station. He took possession of the new station on Thursday. Superintendent Moody says he will have tickets for sale next week.

Otto Dotzauer of Morris Neighborhood was taken into custody by Justice Post on Thursday on a charge preferred by the boy's father, who said Otto stayed out nights and would not obey him and that he was incorrigible. Otto was released upon promising good behavior in the future.

The Rev. Dr. Charles E. Knox, President of the German Theological Seminary, will arrive from Europe in time to be present at the opening of the Seminary on the 15th.

Inspector Corby of the Health Board is of the opinion that the meeting of the Board should be held at once and measures taken for improving the sanitary condition of certain parts of the town.

The Montclair Military Academy will be open for inspection any afternoon for the next ten days. The Principal may be seen at his residence, 715 Bloomfield Avenue, by parents desiring to enter their sons as cadets. The Academy opens the fall term September 14.

Mrs. Anna M. Crane, wife of Joseph Crane of Plane Street, died at her late residence on Wednesday in the seventeenth year of her age of exhaustion. Her husband and six sons survive her. Funeral services will take place to-morrow afternoon from her late home. Interment in Bloomfield Cemetery.

John Brown of Montgomery Avenue will present a bill to the town for damages resulting from the workmen on the sewer system having thrown the dirt in front of his residence in such a manner as to prevent Mr. Brown from using his horse and wagon in transacting his business.

W. B. Corby, the well-known coal dealer, put a new wagon into service on Monday that is the envy of his fellow-coalmen and the admiration of the public. It is a very handsome wagon and was built by David Ward of this town. It has a capacity of 5,000 lbs. Mr. Corby's name is inscribed on a highly polished metal plate on the side of the wagon.

Mrs. Eliza, wife of Fred Geib, died at her home in East Orange on Monday night, after a short illness, aged forty-six years. Funeral services were held on Thursday from the German Presbyterian Church, of which deceased was a member. The K. U. V. Friends' Band, of which Mr. Geib is a member attended the funeral in a body. She leaves five children. Interment was made in Bloomfield Cemetery.

Kohlhaas Bros., proprietors of the merry-go-round on Glenwood Avenue, are doing an immense business. Children and grown people and the young man with his best girl visit there each night and have an enjoyable time. The Kohlhaas Bros. have a large number of merry-go-rounds in operation throughout the country. They will remain until the State Fair at Waverly opens.

PERSONAL JOTTINGS.

Clinton Gilbert is seriously ill at his home in Amityville, L. I.

William R. Hall of Oakland Avenue will leave to-day for Ocean Grove.

Edward Lancaster and family are spending two weeks at Ocean Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Graham of New Street are sojourning at Ocean Grove.

Eugene L. Lockwood is taking his vacation at Churchill Hall, Stamford, N. Y.

The Rev. E. A. White and family have returned from their stay at Lake Hopatcong.

Mrs. E. C. Young of Henry Street has gone to Binghamton, N. Y., for an extended stay.

Ralph Clark of Liberty Street has returned from a cruise on the schooner Annie Wingate.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Noble Colfax of Benson Street will spend a vacation at Chester, N. Y.

Mrs. M. Akers and Miss Gertie Unanast of Washington Avenue are at Manhattan Beach.

Theodore Nevius and family of Glen Ridge arrived home from Point Pleasant yesterday afternoon.

Oscar Noren, formerly with the DeLaval Separator Works, has accepted a position in Philadelphia.

Mrs. D. Y. Johnson and daughter of Morristown are the guests of Mrs. C. H. Grossberg of Bloomfield Avenue.

Mrs. Lena Schloss of Brooklyn was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Spencer H. Hall of Spruce Street, this week.

Harry E. Richards, Mrs. Richards, and Mrs. Cleveland returned on Monday from a month's stay in Virginia.

Adolph G. E. Pape of the German Theological Seminary arrived from Germany last Monday, on the Saale.

Percy II. Johnson has returned from a lengthy stay at Greenwood Lake. Percy has some great snake and fish stories to tell.

Miss Edith Kent of Providence, R. I., who has been visiting Mrs. W. L. Johnson of Franklin Street, has returned to her home.

William E. Ashley of Raleigh, N. C., was in town last week on a visit to his mother, Mrs. William Ashley of Glenwood Avenue.

Mrs. Dr. Lockwood who has been spending the last four weeks in the Catskill Mountains, is now at Churchill Hall, Stamford, N. Y.

Mrs. Thomas Heaton of Plane Street and her sister, Miss Nettie Seager of Montclair, leave to-day to spend a week with friends in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Stevens of New Orleans, who have been visiting Mrs. C. O. Heckel of Washington Avenue, have returned to their home.

Miss Lizzie Bickler and Miss Carrie Gahs, who have been spending the month of August at New Comerstown, Ohio, returned home on Tuesday.

A select party was given at the residence of Mrs. J. Banks Reford on Midland Avenue last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Florence Carl of Short Hills.

J. William Allen of Park Avenue has been engaged as instructor in the St. Paul's Cathedral School of Garden City, L. I., which was endowed by the late A. T. Stewart.

Andrew McGrath, the New York lumber dealer, with his family, have returned to the city after spending two weeks with his daughter, Mrs. H. G. Disbrow, on Broad Street.

Mrs. John Grundy and children of Montgomery Avenue, who have been spending several months with her parents in England, arrived home last Monday, on the steamer Arizona.

The engagement is announced of Miss Annie, daughter of William Cardwell, of No. 75 Marcy Avenue, East Orange, and Frederick, youngest son of John G. Keyler, of Bloomfield Avenue.

Horace H. King of this place has purchased a new ranch in Southern Colorado, where he will devote his attention to cattle raising. Mr. King writes that the prospects for the coming year are very promising.

DON'T put off till to-morrow what ought to be done to-day. We have orders for 600 tons of Lehigh Coal to be delivered this month. If you want Jeddah Lehigh, at $7.50 CASH, send your order at once to the Bloomfield Coal and Supply Company.

Special sale of shoes at Shoenthal's. Advt.

Ripans Tabules : for bad temper.

List of Letters remaining unclaimed in the Post-office at Bloomfield for the week ending September 3:

Baldwin, Samuel Meyer, Meers Bros.
Bogart, J. Miller, Mrs. Irene
Dodd, Miss M. S. Silvy, Robert F.
Lamberton, Miss Flora Taylor, James G.
White, John (2-1)

In applying for the above, ask for "advertisements letters."

T. E. HAYES, Postmaster.

The following letters remain unclaimed in the Post-office at Glen Ridge: Dingley, G. S. Hyland, Miss Kate Murtha, Miss Ethel

Please ask for "advertisements letters."

THOMAS MORITZ, Postmaster.

MARRIED.

BARDELL—TEALL.—At the residence of the bride's mother, in Bloomfield, N. J., September 1, 1892, by the Rev. Charles A. Cook. Mr. Alfred Bardell of Brooklyn and Miss Alice Virginia Teall. No cards.

BALDWIN—WINGATE.—At the residence of the bride's mother, in Bloomfield, N. J., September 1, 1892, by the Rev. Charles A. Cook. Mr. Alfred Bardell of Brooklyn and Miss Alice Virginia Teall. No cards.

DIED.

BALDWIN.—At the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. S. Marx, Easton, Pa., August 21. Susan Moore, widow of the late Caleb D. Baldwin of Bloomfield, in the eighty-ninth year of her age.

Funeral services at Easton, Pa. Interment at Bloomfield Cemetery Saturday, September 3, at 3 P. M.

RALL—In Bloomfield, on the 26th inst., Benedict Rall, in the sixty-ninth year of his age.

OBITUARY.—On August 30, Eliza, wife of George F. Geib, in the forty-sixth year of her age.

WANTED.

Advertisments will be inserted under this heading, or For Sale, To Let, etc., at the rate of ONE CENT PER WORD for each insertion.

WANTED.—A BRIGHT BOY OR GIRL in every town to send to us a personal card asking for particulars of how, by a little pleasant work, they can earn a bicycle, a watch or choice library, without its costing them another cent. BOX 46, Boston, Mass.

WANTED.—LADIES TO SELL THE famous Gloria Water for the complexion; perfectly harmless; cures freckles, pimples, acne, all skin diseases. Ages 18 to 35. Make good wages. Call or addressee, GEORGE E. FORNOFF, No. 12 Broad Street, Bloomfield.

WANTED.—A FEW GENTLEMEN boarders. Inquire of Mrs. W. B. SHEPPARD, No. 2 Ward St.

MRS. KUHN WISHES WASHING, ironing, or house-cleaning. 261 Montgomery Street.

TO LET.

TO LET—NICE ROOMS WITH CITY WATER, No. 34 Broad Street. Suitable for living rooms or for club purposes. Inquire of Dr. WM. HUGH PIERSON, No. 26 Forest Avenue, or Box 320.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE.—BY THE GLEN RIDGE QUARRY and Mining Co., the pair of heavy Grayhounds used by them. Also carts, horns, carts, wagons, and harness. Inquire of E. D. COBBY, at quarry.

FOR SALE.—FIVE BUILDING LOTS on Washington Place; also two building lots on Orange St. near Hill St. Inquire of G. H. SEDGWICK.